IN RE: NATIONAL PRESCRIPTION
OPIATE LITIGATION

THIS DOCUMENT RELATES TO:

The Blackfeet Tribe of the Blackfeet
Indian Reservation v. Purdue Pharma L.P., et al.,
Case No. 1:18-op-45749-DAP

MDL No. 2804

Case No. 1:17-md-2804

Hon. Dan Aaron Polster

WALGREENS' ANSWER AND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES TO PLAINTIFFS' CORRECTED FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT

Defendants Walgreen Co. and Walgreen Arizona Drug Co. ("Walgreens") hereby respond to Plaintiff's Corrected First Amended Complaint. Any allegations not expressly admitted are denied.

1. Walgreens admits that Plaintiff purports to bring this action against the parties identified and for the reasons stated, but denies that there is any basis for the claims against Walgreens. To the extent that the allegations of the last sentence of this paragraph are meant to refer to Walgreens, Walgreens denies them. To the extent the allegations are meant to refer to other Defendants, Walgreens lacks knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations and therefore denies them.

2. Walgreens admits that prescription opioid medications can reduce pain and can also be misused, abused, and over-prescribed.

3. Walgreens admits that many Americans have been affected by the misuse and abuse of opioids. To the extent that the allegations of the final two sentences of this paragraph are meant to refer to Walgreens, Walgreens denies them. To the extent the allegations are meant to refer to other Defendants, Walgreens lacks knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations and therefore denies them.

4. Walgreens denies the allegations of the first sentence of this paragraph. This paragraph cites an NIH document, which speaks for itself; no response is required. To the extent that a response is found to be required, Walgreens denies the allegations of the paragraph to the extent they are inconsistent with the NIH document.

5. This paragraph refers to two CDC documents, which speak for themselves; no response is required. To the extent that a response is found to be required, Walgreens denies the allegations of the paragraph to the extent they are inconsistent with the CDC documents. Walgreens admits that the drugs listed in the third sentence of this paragraph represent a partial list of prescription opioid medications.

6. The allegations in the first, second, and final sentences of this paragraph are too vague to require a response, particularly the references to “most of the overdoses,” “directly related to,” “many opioid users,” and “40 times more likely.” To the extent that a response is found to be required, Walgreens denies the allegations. The third sentence of this paragraph refers to an ASAM document, which speaks for itself; no response is required. To the extent that a response is found to be required, Walgreens denies the allegations of the sentence to the extent they are inconsistent with the ASAM document.

7. Walgreens lacks knowledge sufficient to admit or deny the allegations of this paragraph, and therefore denies them.

8. This paragraph refers to a quotation from the CDC and a presidential declaration, which speak for themselves; no response is required. To the extent that a response is found to be required, Walgreens denies the allegations of the paragraph to the extent they are inconsistent with the CDC quotation and the presidential declaration.

9. Walgreens admits that Plaintiff purports to bring this action for the reasons stated, but denies that there is any basis for the claims against Walgreens. This paragraph does not state an allegation of fact, but instead characterizes Plaintiff's claims and states legal conclusions as to which no response is required. To the extent that the allegations of this paragraph are intended to be factual allegations and are meant to refer to Walgreens, Walgreens denies them. To the extent the allegations are meant to refer to other Defendants, Walgreens lacks knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations and therefore denies them.

10. The allegations in this paragraph are directed at parties other than Walgreens and therefore no response by Walgreens is required. To the extent that a response is found to be required, Walgreens lacks knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations and therefore denies them.

11. The allegations in this paragraph are directed at parties other than Walgreens and therefore no response by Walgreens is required. To the extent that a response is found to be required, Walgreens lacks knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations and therefore denies them.

12. The allegations in this paragraph are directed at parties other than Walgreens and therefore no response by Walgreens is required. To the extent that a response is found to be required, Walgreens lacks knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations and therefore denies them.

13. The allegations in this paragraph are directed at parties other than Walgreens and therefore no response by Walgreens is required. To the extent that a response is found to be required, Walgreens lacks knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations and therefore denies them.

14. The allegations of the first sentence of this paragraph are too vague to require a response, particularly the reference to “blockbuster profits.” To the extent that a response is found to be required and to the extent that the allegations of this paragraph are meant to refer to Walgreens, Walgreens denies them. To the extent the allegations are meant to refer to other Defendants, Walgreens lacks knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations and therefore denies them. Walgreens lacks knowledge sufficient to admit or deny the allegations of the second and third sentences of this paragraph, and therefore denies them.

15. To the extent that the allegations of this paragraph are meant to refer to Walgreens, Walgreens denies them. To the extent the allegations are meant to refer to other Defendants, Walgreens lacks knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations and therefore denies them.

16. To the extent that the allegations of this paragraph are meant to refer to Walgreens, Walgreens denies them. To the extent the allegations are meant to refer to other Defendants, Walgreens lacks knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations and therefore denies them. Walgreens admits that “pill mills” and “rogue prescribers” have contributed to the over-prescription of opioid medications.

17. The first sentence of this paragraph cites a CDC statement, which speaks for itself; no response is required. To the extent that a response is found to be required, Walgreens denies the allegations of the paragraph to the extent they are inconsistent with the statement cited. To the extent that the allegations of this paragraph are meant to refer to Walgreens, Walgreens denies that its conduct caused a “public health epidemic” or an “urgent health crisis” or any of the problems listed in the second sentence of the paragraph. To the extent the allegations are meant to refer to other Defendants, Walgreens lacks knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations and therefore denies them.

18. To the extent that the allegations of this paragraph are meant to refer to Walgreens, Walgreens denies that its conduct has caused ongoing harm and damages to the Plaintiff. To the extent the allegations are meant to refer to other Defendants, Walgreens lacks knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations and therefore denies them. The final sentence of the paragraph refers to a CDC document, which speaks for itself; no response is required. To the extent that a response is found to be required, Walgreens denies the allegations of the paragraph to the extent they are inconsistent with the CDC document.

19. To the extent that the allegations of this paragraph are meant to refer to Walgreens, Walgreens denies that it fraudulently promoted opioid use and is responsible for the Plaintiff's response costs. To the extent the allegations are meant to refer to other Defendants, Walgreens lacks knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations and therefore denies them.

20. This paragraph states legal conclusions as to which no response is required. To the extent that a response is found to be required and to the extent that the allegations of this paragraph are meant to refer to Walgreens, Walgreens denies them. To the extent the allegations are meant to refer to other Defendants, Walgreens lacks knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations and therefore denies them.

21. To the extent that the allegations of this paragraph are meant to refer to Walgreens, Walgreens denies that it has engaged in "past misconduct" and is "continuing to fuel the crisis." To the extent the allegations are meant to refer to other Defendants, Walgreens lacks knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations and therefore denies them.

22. Walgreens lacks knowledge sufficient to admit or deny the allegations of this paragraph, and therefore denies them.

23. Walgreens admits that Plaintiff purports to bring this action for the reasons stated, but denies that there is any basis for the claims against Walgreens. This paragraph does not state an allegation of fact, but instead characterizes Plaintiff's claims and states legal conclusions as to which no response is required. To the extent that the allegations of this paragraph are intended to be factual allegations and are meant to refer to Walgreens, Walgreens denies that it has caused an opioid epidemic or opioid crisis. To the extent the allegations are meant to refer to other Defendants, Walgreens lacks knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations and therefore denies them.

24. This paragraph states legal conclusions as to which no response is necessary. To the extent that a response is found to be required, Walgreens does not contest the court's subject matter jurisdiction.

25. This paragraph states legal conclusions as to which no response is necessary. To the extent that a response is found to be required, Walgreens does not contest the court's subject matter jurisdiction.

26. This paragraph states legal conclusions as to which no response is necessary. To the extent that a response is found to be required, Walgreens does not contest personal jurisdiction in this court.

27. This paragraph states legal conclusions as to which no response is necessary. To the extent that a response is found to be required, Walgreens does not contest personal jurisdiction in this court.

28. This paragraph states legal conclusions as to which no response is necessary. To the extent that a response is found to be required, Walgreens does not contest venue in this court.

29. This paragraph does not state an allegation of fact, but instead characterizes Plaintiff's claims and states legal conclusions as to which no response is required.

30. Walgreens lacks knowledge sufficient to admit or deny the allegations of this paragraph, and therefore denies them.

31. Walgreens lacks knowledge sufficient to admit or deny the allegations of this paragraph, and therefore denies them.

32. Walgreens lacks knowledge sufficient to admit or deny the allegations of this paragraph, and therefore denies them.

33. To the extent that the allegations of this paragraph are meant to refer to Walgreens, Walgreens denies that its distribution of prescription opioid medications has caused an opioid crisis or opioid public nuisance. To the extent the allegations are meant to refer to other Defendants, Walgreens lacks knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations and therefore denies them.

34. This paragraph states legal conclusions as to which no response is required. To the extent that a response is found to be required, Walgreens denies that its conduct has caused any financial burden or economic damages to Plaintiff. To the extent the allegations are meant to refer to other Defendants, Walgreens lacks knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations and therefore denies them.

35. This paragraph states legal conclusions as to which no response is required. To the extent that a response is found to be required, Walgreens denies that it engaged in wrongful and/or unlawful conduct. To the extent the allegations are meant to refer to other Defendants, Walgreens lacks knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations and therefore denies them.

36. This paragraph states legal conclusions as to which no response is required. To the extent that a response is found to be required, Walgreens denies that Plaintiff has any basis to recover damages from Walgreens for its alleged acts and omissions. To the extent the allegations are meant to refer to other Defendants, Walgreens lacks knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations and therefore denies them.

37. The allegations in this paragraph are directed at parties other than Walgreens and therefore no response by Walgreens is required. To the extent that a response is found to be required, Walgreens lacks knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations and therefore denies them.

38. The allegations in this paragraph are directed at parties other than Walgreens and therefore no response by Walgreens is required. To the extent that a response is found to be required, Walgreens lacks knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations and therefore denies them.

To the extent the allegations are meant to refer to other Defendants, Walgreens lacks knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations and therefore denies them.

1123. This paragraph states legal conclusions as to which no response is required. To the extent that a response is found to be required, and to the extent that the allegations of this paragraph are meant to refer to Walgreens, Walgreens denies them. To the extent the allegations are meant to refer to other Defendants, Walgreens lacks knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations and therefore denies them.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Walgreens admits that Plaintiff seeks the identified relief, but denies that Plaintiff has any legal entitlement to the relief sought.

WALGREENS' AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

1. The Corrected First Amended Complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, fails to state facts sufficient to constitute the purported causes of action, and fails to plead a legally cognizable injury.
2. Plaintiff's claims are barred by the applicable statutes of limitation.
3. Plaintiff's claims are barred by the doctrine of laches.
4. Plaintiff's claims are barred by the applicable statutes of repose.
5. Plaintiff's claims are barred or limited for lack of standing.

6. Plaintiff's claims are barred by the doctrine of primary jurisdiction.
7. Plaintiff's claims are barred by the voluntary payment doctrine.
8. Plaintiff's claims are barred by the doctrine of unclean hands.
9. Plaintiff's claims are barred by the doctrine of in pari delicto.
10. Venue may be improper and/or inconvenient in this Court.
11. Plaintiff's claims are not ripe and/or have been mooted.
12. Plaintiff's claims and damages are barred or limited, in whole or in part, by common law, statutory, and state constitutional constraints on the exercise of police powers.
13. Plaintiff's claims and damages are barred or limited by the political question and separation of powers doctrines and because its state law claims implicate issues of statewide importance that are reserved for state regulation.
14. Plaintiff's claims are barred to the extent they are based on alleged violations of industry customs because purported industry customs do not create legal duties on Walgreens.
15. Plaintiff's claims are barred because Plaintiff is not the real parties in interest.
16. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Plaintiff lacks capacity to bring its claims, including claims maintained, even indirectly, on behalf of its members and/or claims brought as parens patriae.
17. Plaintiff's claims are barred to the extent Walgreens has valid defenses which would bar recovery by those persons on whose behalf Plaintiff seeks recovery.
18. Plaintiff's claims are subject to all defenses that could be asserted if Plaintiff's claims were properly made by individuals on whose behalf Plaintiff seeks to recover.
19. Plaintiff has failed to comply with the requirement that it identify each patient in whose claim(s) it has a subrogation interest and on whose behalf it has incurred costs.

20. Plaintiff fails to plead that it reimbursed any prescriptions for any opioid distributed by Walgreens that harmed patients and should not have been written, that Walgreens' alleged improper conduct caused any health care provider to write any ineffective or harmful opioid prescriptions, or that any prescription was unauthorized, medically unnecessary, ineffective, harmful, or caused any of the injuries or harms for which Plaintiff seeks recovery.

21. Plaintiff's claims are barred by the doctrines of estoppel, waiver, and/or ratification.

22. Plaintiff's claims against Walgreens do not arise from the same transactions or occurrences as their claims against other Defendants, as required for joinder of parties.

23. Plaintiff failed to join all necessary and indispensable parties, including without limitation the DEA, health care providers, prescribers, patients, and other third parties whom Plaintiff alleges engaged in or contributed to the prescription, dispensing, diversion, or use of opioids.

24. Walgreens denies all types of causation, including without limitation cause in fact, proximate cause, and producing cause, as to the claims asserted against Walgreens.

25. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Walgreens did not proximately cause the Plaintiff's alleged damages, and because the acts of other persons, including without limitation individuals engaged in the illegal sale and/or use of opioids, intervened between Walgreens' acts and Plaintiff's alleged harms.

26. Plaintiff's claims are barred to the extent they are based on the intentional criminal acts of third parties, which Walgreens had no duty to control or prevent and which act as superseding and/or intervening causes that extinguish any liability.

27. Plaintiff's claims are barred because its alleged injuries and damages resulted from intervening and/or superseding causes, and any act or omission by Walgreens was not the proximate and/or producing cause of Plaintiff's alleged injuries and damages.

28. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because its alleged injuries or damages, if any, were due to illicit use or abuse of the medications at issue by the medication users.

29. Plaintiff's claims are barred to the extent its alleged injuries and damages were caused or contributed to by the negligence or conduct of Plaintiff and/or third parties over whom Walgreens had no control and for whom it is not responsible.

30. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because the derivative injury rule and the remoteness doctrine bar Plaintiff from recovering payments that it allegedly made on behalf of its members to reimburse any expenses for health care, pharmaceutical care, and/or other public services.

31. The alleged injuries and damages asserted by Plaintiff are too remote and/or speculative from the alleged conduct of Walgreens to be a basis for liability as a matter of law and due process and derive solely from the claims of others.

32. Plaintiff would be unjustly enriched if allowed to recover on any of its claims.

33. Plaintiff's claims are barred because Plaintiff suffered no injuries or damages as a result of any action by Walgreens.

34. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because its alleged injuries or damages were caused by unforeseeable or uncontrollable forces over which Walgreens had no control, including without limitation pre-existing or unrelated medical conditions.

35. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because its alleged injuries or damages were caused by the misuse of the medications involved, by failure to use the medications properly, by the alteration, modification, or criminal misuse of medications, and/or the improper prescription of medications by third parties over whom Walgreens had no control.

36. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because neither the users of the subject prescription medications nor their prescribers relied to their detriment upon any statement by Walgreens in determining to use or prescribe the subject prescription medications.

37. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, under the learned intermediary doctrine.

38. Any injuries and/or damages sustained by Plaintiff were caused, in whole or part, by its own failure to effectively enforce the law and prosecute violations thereof and any recovery by Plaintiff is barred or, alternatively, should be diminished according to its own fault.

39. Any recovery by Plaintiffs may be barred or limited by the principle of comparative or contributory fault.

40. Any recovery by Plaintiffs may be barred or limited by the principles of informed consent and/or assumption of the risk, whether primary, express, or implied.

41. Walgreens asserts its right to a proportionate reduction, based on the negligence or other conduct of any settling tortfeasor, responsible third party, or Plaintiff, of any damages found against Walgreens.

42. Plaintiff's claims are barred to the extent its alleged damages are speculative, uncertain, or hypothetical.

43. Plaintiff's damages, if any, were caused by the direct and proximate negligence or other conduct of entities or persons other than Walgreens, and in the event Walgreens is found liable to Plaintiff, Walgreens will be entitled to indemnification, contribution and/or apportionment.

44. Any verdict or judgment that might be recovered by Plaintiff must be reduced by those amounts that have already indemnified or with reasonable certainty will indemnify Plaintiff in whole or in part for any past or future claimed economic loss from any collateral source or any other applicable law.

45. In the event of liability against Walgreens (which liability is specifically denied), a percentage of the tortious conduct that proximately caused Plaintiff's injury or loss is attributable to (1) the Plaintiff; (2) other parties from whom Plaintiff seeks recovery; and (3) persons from whom Plaintiff does not seek recovery in this action, including but not limited to opioid prescribers, their associates, and employers, including hospitals; non-party manufacturers of prescription opioids; non-party distributors of prescription opioids; non-party pharmacies and pharmacists employed or formerly employed by those pharmacies; other individuals or entities involved in the manufacture, import, distribution, diversion, procurement, sale, dispensing, use, misuse, or abuse of prescription opioids and/or other medications or illegal drugs; delivery services; federal, state, and local government entities; health insurers and pharmacy benefit managers; and any other individuals or entities identified by Plaintiff or any other Defendant as a non-party whose tortious conduct proximately caused Plaintiff's injury or loss. See MONT. CODE ANN. § 27-1-702 (2017).

46. In the event of liability against Walgreens (which liability is specifically denied), the facts will show that any recovery must be reduced pursuant to MONT. CODE ANN. § 27-1-702 (2017) to account for the acts and omissions attributed to Plaintiff.

47. Plaintiff failed or refused to exercise reasonable care and diligence to avoid loss and minimize damages and may not recover for losses that could have been prevented by reasonable efforts on its part, or by expenditures which might reasonably have been made. Recovery, if any, should therefore be reduced by Plaintiff's failure to mitigate damages, if any.

48. Plaintiff's claims are barred or limited by the economic loss rule.

49. Plaintiff's claims are barred or limited by the free public services and/or municipal cost recovery doctrine.

50. Plaintiff's claims are barred to the extent they relate to Walgreens' or other Defendants' alleged advertising, public statements, lobbying, or other activities protected by the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States or by the Constitution of the State of Montana or that of any other state whose laws may apply.

51. The damages which Plaintiffs may be entitled to recover if liability is established (which liability is specifically denied) are capped pursuant to MONT. CODE ANN. § 27-1-220(3) (2017).

52. Any damages that Plaintiffs may recover against Walgreens must be reduced to the extent that Plaintiffs are seeking damages for alleged injuries or expenses related to the same user(s) of the subject prescription medications, or damages recovered or recoverable by other actual or potential plaintiffs. Any damages that Plaintiffs may recover against Walgreens must be reduced to the extent they unjustly enrich Plaintiffs.

53. Plaintiff's claims are barred to the extent they rely, explicitly or implicitly, on a theory of market-share liability.

54. To the extent Plaintiff attempts to seek equitable relief, Plaintiff is not entitled to such relief because Plaintiff has an adequate remedy at law.

55. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent that they violate the Due Process or Ex Post Facto clauses of the United States or Montana constitutions.

56. Defendants' rights under the Due Process Clause of the U.S. Constitution and applicable state constitutions or statutes are violated by any financial or other arrangement that might distort a government attorney's duty to pursue justice rather than his or her personal interests, financial or otherwise, in the context of a civil enforcement proceeding, including by Plaintiff's use of a contingency fee contract with private counsel.

57. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent that they violate the Dormant Commerce Clause of the United States Constitution.

58. Plaintiff's claims are preempted by federal law, including without limitation the federal Controlled Substances Act and the Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act ("FDCA").

59. Walgreens' conduct conformed with the FDCA and the requirements of the FDA, and the activities of Walgreens alleged in the Complaint conformed with all state and federal statutes, regulations, and industry standards based on the state of knowledge at the relevant time(s) alleged in the Complaint.

60. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by conflict preemption as set forth in the United States Supreme Court's decisions in PLIVA, Inc. v. Mensing, 564 U.S. 604 (2011), and Mutual Pharm. Co. v. Bartlett, 570 U.S. 472 (2013).

61. Plaintiff's claims are preempted insofar as they conflict with Congress's purposes and objectives in enacting relevant federal legislation and authorizing regulations, including the Hatch-Waxman Amendments to the FDCA and implementing regulations. See Geier v. Am. Honda Motor Co., 529 U.S. 861 (2000).

62. To the extent Plaintiffs assert claims that depend on violations of federal law, including any claims of a “fraud on the FDA” with respect to the Manufacturer Defendants’ disclosure of information related to the safety of their medications at issue, such claims are barred and should be dismissed. See Buckman Co. v. Plaintiffs’ Legal Comm., 531 U.S. 341 (2001).

63. To the extent Plaintiffs assert claims that depend on violations of federal law, including any claims of “fraud on the DEA” with respect to Walgreens’ compliance with statutes or regulations administered and/or enforced by the DEA, such claims are barred and should be dismissed. See id.

64. Plaintiff’s claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the deference that common law accords discretionary actions by the FDA under the FDCA and discretionary actions by the DEA under the Controlled Substances Act.

65. Plaintiff’s claims are barred, in whole or in part, for failure to exhaust administrative remedies.

66. If Plaintiffs incurred the damages alleged, which is expressly denied, Walgreens is not liable for damages because the methods, standards, or techniques of designing, manufacturing, labeling, and distributing of the prescription medications at issue complied with and were in conformity with the laws and regulations of the Controlled Substances Act, the FDCA, and the generally recognized state of the art, in the industry, at the time the product was designed, manufactured, labeled, and distributed.

67. Plaintiff’s claims are barred to the extent they are based on any allegations involving failure to provide adequate warnings or information because all warnings or information that accompanied the allegedly distributed products were approved by the United States Food & Drug Administration for a product approved under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. Section 301 et seq.), as amended, or Section 351, Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. Section 262), as amended, or the warnings and information provided were those stated in monographs developed by the United States Food & Drug Administration for pharmaceutical products that may be distributed without an approved new drug application.

68. Walgreens did not owe or breach any statutory or common law duty to Plaintiff.

69. Walgreens appropriately, completely, and fully performed and discharged any and all obligations and legal duties arising out of the matters alleged in the Complaint.

70. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Walgreens complied at all relevant times with all applicable laws, including all legal and regulatory duties.

71. To the extent that Plaintiff relies on letters or other informal guidance from DEA to establish Walgreens' regulatory duties, such informal guidance cannot enlarge Walgreens' regulatory duties in the absence of compliance by DEA with the requirements by the Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. § 551 et seq.

72. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Plaintiff has no private right of action under the relevant laws and regulations.

73. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the RESTATEMENT (SECOND) OF TORTS § 402A, cmts. j and k, and RESTATEMENT (THIRD) OF TORTS: PRODUCTS LIABILITY § 6.

74. Walgreens is not liable for any statements in the Manufacturer Defendants' branded or unbranded materials.

75. Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part, or are subject to other limitations, under Montana law.

76. Plaintiff's nuisance claims are barred to the extent that they lack the statutory authority to bring a nuisance claim under Montana law.

77. Plaintiff's nuisance claims are barred or limited to the extent that they have been abrogated by MONT. CODE ANN. § 27-1-719 (2017).

78. Plaintiff's claim of public nuisance is barred or limited because no action of Walgreens involved interference with real property; illegal conduct perpetrated by third parties involving the use of an otherwise legal product does not involve a public right against the distributor sufficient to state a claim for public nuisance; the alleged public nuisance would have impermissible extraterritorial reach; and the alleged conduct of Walgreens is too remote from the alleged injury as a matter of law and due process.

79. Plaintiff's claim for unjust enrichment is barred or limited because Walgreens did not receive and retain any alleged benefit from Plaintiff.

80. Plaintiff's claims are barred, reduced, and/or limited pursuant to the applicable Montana statutory and common law regarding limitations of awards, caps on recovery, and setoffs.

81. Plaintiff's claims are barred, reduced, and/or limited to the extent that Walgreens is entitled to a credit or setoff for any and all sums Plaintiff has received in the way of any and all settlements.

82. To the extent that Plaintiff is alleging fraud, fraudulent concealment, or similar conduct, Plaintiff has failed to plead fraud with sufficient particularity.

83. Plaintiff fails to plead any actionable misrepresentation or omission made by or attributable to Walgreens.

84. Plaintiff may be barred by the doctrines of res judicata and collateral estoppel from all forms of relief sought in the Complaint.

85. Plaintiff's claims are barred or limited by the terms and effect of any applicable Consent Judgment, including by operation of the doctrines of res judicata and collateral estoppel, failure to fulfill conditions precedent, failure to provide requisite notice, payment, accord and satisfaction, and compromise and settlement.

86. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because no conduct of Walgreens was misleading, unfair, or deceptive.

87. Plaintiff's claims may be barred because neither the users, nor the prescribers of the medications distributed by Walgreens, nor Plaintiff itself, relied to their detriment upon any statement by Walgreens in determining to use the medications at issue.

88. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrines of acquiescence, settlement, or release.

89. Walgreens' liability, if any, will not result from its conduct but is solely the result of an obligation imposed by law, and thus Walgreens is entitled to complete indemnity, express or implied, by other parties.

90. Plaintiff's claims for punitive or exemplary damages or other civil penalties are barred or reduced by applicable law or statute or, in the alternative, are unconstitutional insofar as they violate the Due Process clauses of the United States Constitution, the Excessive Fines Clause of the Eighth Amendment of the United States Constitution, the Full Faith and Credit Clause of the United States Constitution, the Double Jeopardy Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution, the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution, the Sixth Amendment to the United States Constitution, and applicable provisions of the Constitution of Montana or that of any other state whose laws may apply. Any law, statute or other authority purporting to permit the recovery of punitive damages or civil penalties in this case is unconstitutional, facially and as applied, to the extent that, without limitation, it:

- (1) lacks constitutionally sufficient standards to guide and restrain the jury's discretion in determining whether to award punitive damages or civil penalties and/or the amount, if any;
- (2) is void for vagueness in that it fails to provide adequate advance notice as to what conduct will result in punitive damages or civil penalties;
- (3) unconstitutionally may permit recovery of punitive damages or civil penalties based on harms to third parties, out-of-state conduct, conduct that complied with applicable law, or conduct that was not directed, or did not proximately cause harm, to Plaintiffs;
- (4) permits the imposition of punitive damages where the burden of proof is less than clear and convincing evidence;
- (5) permits the imposition of punitive damages without bifurcating the trial and trying all punitive damages issues separately, only if and after a finding on the merits of the liability of the Defendants;
- (6) permits the imposition of punitive damages without any predetermined limit on any such award;
- (7) permits an imposition of punitive damages that allows for multiple punishments for the same alleged act(s) or omission(s);

- (8) unconstitutionally may permit recovery of punitive damages or civil penalties in an amount that is not both reasonable and proportionate to the amount of harm, if any, to Plaintiffs and to the amount of compensatory damages, if any;
- (9) unconstitutionally may permit jury consideration of net worth or other financial information relating to Defendants;
- (10) lacks constitutionally sufficient standards to be applied by the trial court in post-verdict review of any award of punitive damages or civil penalties;
- (11) lacks constitutionally sufficient standards for appellate review of any award of punitive damages or civil penalties;
- (12) would unconstitutionally impose a penalty, criminal in nature, without according to Defendants the same procedural protections that are accorded to criminal defendants under the constitutions of the United States, Montana, and any other state whose laws may apply; and
- (13) otherwise fails to satisfy Supreme Court precedent, including, without limitation, Pacific Mut. Life Ins. Co. v. Haslip, 499 U.S. 1 (1991); TXO Prod. Corp. v. Alliance Res. Corp., 509 U.S. 443 (1993); BMW of N. Am., Inc. v. Gore, 517 U.S. 559 (1996); State Farm Mutual Auto. Ins. Co. v. Campbell, 538 U.S. 408 (2003); and Philip Morris USA v. Williams, 549 U.S. 346 (2007).

91. To the extent that Plaintiff seeks punitive, exemplary, or aggravated damages, any such damages are barred because the product at issue, and its labeling, were subject to and received pre-market approval by the FDA under 52 Stat. 1040, 21 U.S.C. § 301.

92. Plaintiff's claims for punitive or exemplary damages are barred because Plaintiff cannot prove by clear and convincing evidence that Walgreens was grossly negligent, and Walgreens has neither acted nor failed to act in a manner that entitles Plaintiff to recover punitive or exemplary damages.

93. Plaintiff cannot obtain relief on its claims based on actions undertaken by Walgreens of which Walgreens provided notice of all material facts.

94. Walgreens is entitled to, and claims the benefit of, all defenses and presumptions set forth in or arising from any rule of law or statute of Montana or any other state whose substantive law might control the action.

95. Walgreens asserts all applicable defenses under FED. R. CIV. P. 8(c) and 12(b) and/or MONT. R. CIV. P. 8(c) and 12(b), as investigation and discovery proceeds.

96. Walgreens reserves the right to assert any other defense available under Montana statutes, Montana common law, the Montana Constitution, and/or any other state constitution, statute, or regulation that may apply.

97. To the extent they are not otherwise incorporated herein, Walgreens incorporates as a defense the defenses and arguments raised in the motions to dismiss of the Manufacturer Defendants, Distributor Defendants, and Pharmacy Defendants in this case.

98. Walgreens adopts by reference any additional applicable defense pleaded by any other Defendants not otherwise pleaded herein.
